Irish Story Time

Murphy lay in hospital covered in bandages, head to foot - with just two little slits for his eyes. 'What happened to you?' asked Cassidy. 'I staggered out of the pub and a lorry hit me a glancing blow and knocked me through a plate glass window.' 'Begod,' said Cassidy. 'It's a good job you were wearing those bandages or you'd have been cut to ribbons!'

Our Pre-Loved Items Sale was well supported on the day and a number of bargains were received by shoppers. There has been interest in us having another sale as a number of members had goodies but did not get them to us. If you have stock that you now wish to hand on to us please phone Wendy on 8837409 to arrange a drop off time. Only stock in good condition and working order will be accepted. A date will be confirmed once adequate stock has been received. Now may be a good time to have a summer clean out in your cupboards and spare room!
